Bill No. 003

DATE OF INTRODUCTION: September 5, 2023

SPONSOR: Sevor, Max A.

COSPONSORS: Tylenda, Meg M.; Henrichs, Ashlyn N.

PURPOSE: Per SBA Bylaw § 6, all SBA-Chartered Organizations are required to submit an end-of-year report by the end of the spring semester. SBA Bylaw § 6(h) tasks the Student Bar Association with enforcing reporting requirements for all SBA-Chartered Organizations through sanctions. Those sanctions include, but are not limited to, revocation of all or part of SBA funds; suspension of the organization's charter or events; or complete revocation of the organization's charter. Student Bar Association never received an end-of-year report from American Constitution Society by either the May 17, 2023, deadline or the June 2, 2023, deadline. This bill balances the need to enforce the SBA Bylaws and includes a fair opportunity for American Constitution Society to reestablish itself as a successful SBA-Chartered Organization.

BILL TEXT:

Section 1 – Pursuant Bylaw Eight § 6(h), the charter, constitution, and/or bylaws of the SBA-Chartered Organization known as American Constitution Society shall be suspended indefinitely and the organization shall no longer be recognized by the Student Bar Association.

Section 2 – The American Constitution Society shall be ineligible to obtain funding from the Student Bar Association through the process outlined in Bylaw Ten for the length of suspension.

Section 3 – The American Constitution Society may remove its suspension and become recognized again by reestablishing itself as an SBA-Chartered Organization following the process specified in Bylaw Eight. If the American Constitution Society reestablishes itself as a recognized, SBA-Chartered Organization, nothing herein shall prevent the ability of the American Constitution Society to receive appropriations by the Student Bar Association should the budget process specified in Bylaw Ten have elapsed for the semester.
